AHODE ISLAND LEADS THE PACE

The Smallest State in the Union the First to Break Ground at Jamestown.

WITH FORMAL CEREMONIES

Lieutenant-Governor J. Taylor Ellyson Will Do the Honors for Virginia.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA, July 12.—The most imposing ceremony yet held in connection with the arrangements for the Jamestown Exposition will be conducted tomorrow, when the first sod is turned for the erection of the Rhods Island State building on the exposition grounds.

Lieutemant-Governor Ellyson will make the address of welcome to the Rhode Island Exposition Commission. The entire commission of the State will be on hand, as well as exposition officials and many public officials, and the public at large is invited to be present. It will be a red letter day for the Jamestown Exposition.

Governor, Swanson was expected to red letter day for the Jamestown Japon Sitton.

Governor, Swanson was expected to make the address of welcome, but telegraphed to the Lieutenant-Governor that he could not be here, and asked that he take his place.

The exercises will commence promptly at 11 o'clock, and following is the programme as arranged for the occasion:

PROGRAMME OF EXERCISES.

1. Welcome address, by Lieutenant-Governor Ellyson.

2. Presentation of deed, by exposition official.

3. Acceptance on behalf of the commis-sion of Rhode Island, by Hon. John Tag-gard Blodgett, president Rhode Island Commission.

sion of Rhode Island, by Hon, John Tasgard Blodgett, president Rhode Island Commission.

4. Turning of the first sod.

5. Reading of the Providence Plantation
Civil Compact of 1827, by Mr. Commissioner Burlingame.

6. Reading of the Colonial Record of the Settlement at Newport, on Rhode Island, in 1639, by Mr. Commissioner Batchelor.

7. Reading of resolutions adopted by the General Assembly of Rhode Island on September 13, 1765, directing all Colonial offloers to disregard the Stamp Act, and insuring thein indemnity in so doing, being an enlargement upon resolutions drafted by Patrick Henry and edopted by the House of Burgesses in May of that year, by Mr. Commissioner Sheahan.

8. Reading of the Declaration of Independence of Rhode Island, passed May 4, 1776, being the first legislative repeal of allegiance to Great Britian (the records of the Assembly always closed with the loyal motto, "God Save the King," but at the close of this session the words were changed and "God Save the United Colonies" appears for the first time in the archives of the ancient plantation), by Mr. Commissioner Sheffield.

9. Raising the Rhode Island State flag,
by Executive Commissioner Kingsburg.

A new and interesting feature in connection with Little Rhodie's participation in the exposition is the fact that the Navy Department has been requested to have the battleship Rhode Island preson on Rhode Island Day, and to have the ship stationed in these waters during the course of the exposition.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

STAUNTON, VA., July 18.—A woman twenty-five years of age, who arrived from Covington, Va., at midnight at Goshen and registered at the Alleghany under the name of Minnie Jones, committed suicide Wednesday night. She was well dressed and handsome. Upon her arrival at the hotel she asked for the best room in the place. She said she was from the West.

The woman was not called for breakfast, and when the porter rapped at her door and received no answer, an investigation was made. The door was unlocked. On the bed beside the woman was an empty phial containing a few drops of laudanum.

An inquest was held yesterday and was presided over by Magistrate Craig, of Cold Suiphur. The verdict of the jury was that the woman met death by drinking laudanum. Several persons claim to have known the woman at Charleston, W. Va., as Helen Gilkeson, and think she registered at the Alleghany under anssumed name.

The body was taken to Bratton and interred. On it was found eighty cents and several photographs of young men living in and about Clifton Forge. There is no clue as to the motive of the deed.

Lengthy Note in Two-Cent

Mileage Case. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) STAUNTON, VA., July 13.—Captain Rudolph Bumgardner, of the firm of Bum-Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, filed his case this morning. It is very lengthy, but the following are the claims made but the following are the claims mad by the defendant:

First—The power of the Legislature of Virginia in the matter of making rates has been absolutely vacated and abrogated by the Constitution of 1902.

Second—The power to fix and prescribe rates in Virginia is now vested exclusively in the State Corporation Commission.

Third—The Constitution of Virginia guarantees that no rate shall be fixed except upon ten days notice to the carrier, and an opportunity to be heard upon the justness and reasonableness of the rate before it is fixed and promulgated.

Fourth—The passenger rates now in force in Virginia are the rates approved and established by the Corporation Commission, which is paramount, and therefore the act of the Legislature in prescribing the Churchman milescap books is in decoration of the paramount power of the mission.

Fifth—There has been established in Virginia a legal maximum rate, within the purview of Lake Shore Rallway vs. Smith, 173 U. S., p. 684. Sixth—The act in question is unacconstitutional in that it discriminates in favor of parties able to buy tickets at wholesale rates and against persons traveling under the ordinary legal established rate.

Seventh—The act in question, known as the "Churchman bill," is so vague indefinite and uncertain in its terms as to be void.
